

Sunday Services

March 1 - 9 and 11 a.m. Can We Build a World Community? – Rev. Bryan Jessup
The sixth Principle of Unitarian Universalism challenges us to affirm and promote "the goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all." This idea, if we can give it life, will eventually lead us beyond competing nations. The cooperation that might ensue would then be our salvation. – Rev. Jessup.

March 8 - 9 a.m. The Power of Ancient Stories – Rev. Bryan Jessup
Rev. Jessup will talk about the Jewish Holiday of Purim, how it is celebrated and what its mythology might stir up in us today.

11 a.m. The Power of Ancient Stories and Songs - Rabbi Naomi Steinberg
In this service Rabbi Naomi will share songs and stories that have helped keep Jews together through good times and bad for centuries.

March 15 - 9 and 11 a.m. Canvass Sunday – Giving and Receiving in the Web of Life - Rev. Bryan Jessup

Respect for the Web of Life certainly involves ecological consciousness and sustainable practices, but it is much deeper than that. When we learn to respect the life and consciousness that is within us, among us and all around us, new avenues of peace and trust are available to us. .

March 22 - 9 a.m. Gospel Music and Dealing with Oppression – Rev. Jessup and Jeff Thomas

We will sing Gospel Songs, think about their history and notice what they bring up in us.

11 a.m. – The Arcata Interfaith Gospel Choir
The Choir will sing for us and Jeff Thomas and Rev. Jessup will guide the service. The Gospel Choir offers us a musical experience that touches our hearts and brings light to our souls.

March 29 - 9 and 11 a.m. Reflections from Starr King - Shay MacKay

Our very own Humboldt UU seminarian will talk with us about theological education and where her spiritual journey has taken her since she moved to Berkeley.
