

Sunday Services

Sunday, Dec. 6 – 9 and 11 a.m. Hanukkah's Children Will Never Forget – Rev. Bryan Jessup

Hanukkah starts tonight. Like many other Jewish holidays, it celebrates human beings living close to the earth, resisting the oppression of power and greed. What lessons might Hanukkah bring us this year?

Sunday, Dec. 13 – 11 a.m. Walking into the Darkness of Winter with Purpose. Led by the RE Cooperative. All ages service.

In the Christian tradition, Dec. 13th is the third Sunday of advent. The youth of the Fellowship will guide us through a meaningful intergenerational ritual. We will explore the practice of Advent, walk the spiral pathway to the altar and make an offering to the hands of Winter. Contemplate what you and your family want to let go of or prune back this winter season to create space for the joy of new life.

9:00 a.m. Join Bryan Jessup in conversation about the practice of Advent and it's similarities to traditional rituals that celebrate the winter solstice.

Sunday, Dec. 20 – 9 and 11 a.m. The Solstice and our Nature Centered Roots – Rev. Bryan Jessup

From Native American rituals, to Buddhist stupas, to the Jewish Star of David, to the Christian cross, the four directions – north, east, south and west – pull at human consciousness. The four seasons remind us of the flow of life. Monday, December 21 is the Winter Solstice, and in our service today we will contemplate the natural roots of all the deep wisdom of humankind.

Thursday, Dec. 24 – 5:30 p.m. Christmas Eve service – Rev. Bryan Jessup

Come to this annual time of music and story that celebrates the profound meaning and mystery underlying the old story of the birth of the teacher Jesus. The HUUF Choir will sing, and beautiful words of the season will warm our hearts.

Sunday, Dec. 27 – 11 a.m.

One service only. 11 AM - Cider Sunday. Jana Kirk-Levine and Veronica Galiani leading.
