January 2015

A Note from the minister

Zen Master Shunryu Suzuki says "Beginner's mind refers to the practice of opening our minds and looking closely at things as they truly are. Beginner's mind helps us take a "step back" from our preconceptions and helps us see what's really happening. In the beginner's mind there are many possibilities."

As we begin a new year together, what a good thing it would be for us to observe closely and see what is truly happening in our own lives and in the world. Based on this open, receptive mode of looking, the goals we set might be more relevant and our work toward achieving them might be more balanced. Facing the same old problems, we might find ourselves sitting in a field full of new possibilities, and that would make the new year new indeed.

Rev. Bryan Jessup

General Assembly

Let's help HUUF grow stronger by connecting with our larger faith. We have a great opportunity June 24-28, at our UU General Assembly in Portland Oregon. This is as close as GA will be for a long time. HUUF members who have attended previous GAs have found it to be an inspirational experience, with practical education in all aspects of congregational life and a chance to make friends with UUs from all over the country. It's a thrill to worship and raise our voices in mighty anthems with 5000 others who share our values and history and to stand together, shoulder to shoulder, in social witness on great justice issues of our time.

Registration for the Assembly is $350 for adults and $205 for high school age registrants (younger children free), plus transportation, lodging and meals. Some contribution is available from the fellowship budget but we will also need to be creative in raising funds. If this experience lures you, don't be deterred by expense: we will find ways to make it happen for our own development as well as that of our Fellowship.

Administration Team Committee Priorities 2014-15

Aesthetics

- 1 Continue to provide continuously changing art shows in our sanctuary.
- 2 Install a series of inspirational chancel hangings.
- 3 Consult on general aesthetic decisions in and around the Fellowship building and grounds.

Building

- 1 Rebuild benches to west of the front door and by patio ramp.
- 2 Repair inoperative fluorescent light fixtures in the sanctuary and nursery, considering conversion to LEDs.
- 3 Investigate adequacy of current parking lot lighting and supplement as necessary.
- 4 Scrub walls in the kitchen, repainting with waterproof, gloss paint, coordinated with Hospitality/Kitchen Committee.

Building Use

- 1 Generate as much income from renting the building and grounds to outside community organizations and individuals as possible, consistent with UU principles.
- 2 Make the building and grounds as available to members as possible for their use and enjoyment, consistent with generating income from renting out the building and grounds in item 1 above.
- 3 Ramp up the promotion of the building to the general public to increase income.
- 4 Continue work on updating building use rental rates and policies for member use.

Communications

- 1 Promote the Fellowship to increase membership.
- 2 Tailor our communications to the needs and desires of the Fellowship.

Finance

- 1 Prepare a complete analysis and set of options regarding the Fellowship's financial situation (i.e., budget shortfall and reserve depletion).
- 2 Complete the revision to the Financial Procedures Manual.

Fundraising

Organize, plan and conduct several fundraising events this year that support the ends of our Fellowship and allow for maximum fun.

Grounds

- 1 Work on increasing safety at the intersection of Jacoby Road and Fellowship Way, especially at night.
- 2 Work to make lawn behind RE, patio, and in Memorial Garden safe and functional for use by children and adults.
- 3 Organize work parties to care for and simplify existing gardens and plants for beauty and ease of maintenance.
- 4 Work on a clear record of memorials in Memorial Garden and written guidelines for site features, plantings, memorials, and distribution of cremated ashes.

Hospitality-Kitchen

A group of concerned members and friends meet frequently to determine ways to make our kitchen function smoothly and safely while providing a warm, hospitable working space. Eventually as guidelines are developed to meet these needs, Kitchen and Hospitality Committees will be formed. Meeting times are listed on Fellowship Calendar and all are welcome to attend.

Personnel

- 1 Prepare the Draft Personnel Policy Manual and updated Job Descriptions for adoption by the Board in early 2015.
- 2 Develop fair compensation recommendations with the long-term goal of meeting UUA Guidelines for staff wages and benefits in time for the first phase to be applied to the 2016-2017 fiscal year.
- 3 Stewardship
- 4 Form a committee capable of carrying out a year round program of stewardship education.
- 5 Carry out an adequate 2015 effort to obtain financial commitment to the Fellowship's budget.
- 6 Survey one-half of the congregation on attitudes toward Stewardship.

People

Welcome to our newest member Catherine Briggs Hanafi.

Our thoughts for safe travel go out to all members and friends on the road this holiday season. More than likely the person traveling the furthest is Anna Mae Botley visiting her daughter and family in New Zealand.

Many of us do not know Mickey and John Strang, members living in McKinleyville. Mickey says they started their marriage in the mid-1940's with matching briefcases and now they have matching walkers which makes it difficult to get out and about. Mickey was recently honored by Sunset Magazine as the being longest recipe contributor still living. Her first recipe was submitted in 1946 for which they paid her $2 and she invested half of it in a one year subscription. Check out Mickey on YouTube.com in 2013 telling about life in China Lake where John was a scientist.

We send healing thoughts to Helen Vatcher for the passing of her disabled daughter on December 1. A small memorial will take place in January.

Hugs to Elisabeth Harrington who lost her brother in North Carolina during the last month.

More healing energies go out to all who are challenged by health issues of their own or of family members. Many are unknown but we are aware of Debbi Cooper's father, Joy Thomas, Mandy Bray, Bonnie MacGregor and her sister.

Administration and Program Teams report

The Administration and Program Teams met jointly in place of the regular Board of Trustees meeting in early December to continue work on the budget shortfall. The Finance Committee reported the shortfall had been reduced to less than $10,000 plus a need for additional reserves. As this newsletter goes to press the Finance Committee is reviewing the shortfall yet again based on the Chaffee Bequest information received this week.

At the early December meeting the Teams discussed committee and ministerial cuts, a special appeal, various forms of Coast Central Credit Union financing and fundraising events. All planning is on hold at this time pending the Finance Committee's review of the Chaffee Bequest's impact on our total financial picture.

The Congregational Meeting scheduled for January 18 has been canceled. A new date will be announced in the next newsletter.

Chaffee bequest

Florence Chaffee was a devoted member of our Fellowship from 1991 until her untimely death in 1994. She and her husband Merick provided for the Fellowship in their Living Trust. As Merick died last year, the Trust was just distributed, with a bequest of $58,562.33 to HUUF. We received the distribution on December 18. Your Finance Committee and Board of Trustees will be discussing the best ways to use and/or invest this money to further our mission over the short and long term. Florence's generosity was also felt right after her death with a bequest of $18,000 which we have used for various projects, including the initial work on developing our Memorial Garden and to purchase the fine rug in our foyer. During her years with us, Florence and two others purchased the Chalice we light each Sunday. We can all be grateful for Florence's generosity, and that of others who have named HUUF in their wills and living trusts.

Religious Education

January 4: Curriculum Sunday — Children gather by ages.

Preschool: How are you diligent? We will read “The Tortoise and the Hare” and discuss behaviors that make us diligent and create our own readers theater.

Kdg-2: Our topic and story is “Be Honest and Tell the Truth,” which emphasizes having the courage to tell the truth and how it makes you feel better about yourself. We will play games that show the importance telling the truth.

3-5: Our New Year. We will learn about Janus, the Roman god with two faces, from which we get the name of January, the first month of our year. We will share memories of the past year and release our bad habits by burning them. We will construct a Janus book for special pictures or ideas during new year and toast in the New Year.

Intermediates: Connections to Community. What makes a community? Do you belong to a community? How do we connect to our communities, and what do they do for us? We will discuss these questions and more, with respect to our personal communities.

January 11: Social Action Sunday — all ages together. We will switch our usual schedule to be on time for our commitment to provide food the third Tuesday of every month to the Arcata Night Shelter. All ages will make food together in the CARE building. Has your family signed up to deliver?

January 18: Curriculum Sunday — Children gather by ages.

Preschool: How do you practice Perseverance? We will read the book Whistle for Willie and discuss behaviors that make us diligent and create our own readers theater.

Kdg-2: Our topic and story is “Respect and Take Care of Things,” which shows different ways to take care of things like putting them away, handling fragile things with care and helping to keep our environment clean. We will play a “Where does it belong” game and recycle items into a reusable creation.

3-5: Baba Jamal Koram. We will celebrate this Martin Luther King weekend by staying in the worship service with the adults and listening to The Story Man, African-American master storyteller Baba Jamal Koram. His stories enchant while giving us ideas to think about. His cultural stories will give us a different way of looking at familiar ideas.

Intermediates: Continuing with our theme of Connection to Community, we will learn how we connect to larger communities: our towns, our county, our state, our country, and our world.

January 25: All Worship Sunday — all ages together. We will sing together and talk about generosity. What is generosity? Does it mean giving things to others? What is generosity of spirit? How do we give spirit to one another? We will learn a story of generosity and act it out.

Our Religious Education Cooperative needs your support in the New Year. You can support our program in some simple ways and be a part of the fun: Host a family night. Does anyone miss Dance Party? It only takes three people to make it happen. How about another Parents/ Kids Night Out? We have a template that makes it easy to accomplish. Sign up in the foyer to contribute snacks or email Allison Bronkall at bronkall@sbcglobal.net. For Night Shelter food delivery email Raquel Lee at raquelita@suddenlink.net

Member bios

I was born in 1935 in Minneapolis, married in 1955 and left that cold Midwest town in 1967 for a job with the UUA in Boston where Richard went to work for Liberal Religious Youth during that turbulent and exciting time in history. By a long and rather circuitous route I got to Berkeley, California in 1971 and from there I never looked back but kept on moving north to find my true home in Humboldt County in 1982.

Having been UUs since 1959, Richard and I naturally gravitated to the Fellowship. Here I found a place that both soothes me and stimulates me to step outside my comfort zone as well as staying in it. My deep spiritual home continues to be in meditation and study of the Eight Fold Path that the Buddha taught, constantly reminding myself of those eight points on the Buddhist wheel I am committed to follow.

Turning 80 in March seems like a big step and one I look forward to achieving – I am tired of being “almost 80” and am ready to be there.

Ginger Kossow

Ginger Kossow

My birthplace was Madison WI. My first home was a log cabin, thanks to my dad, a graduate student at the time, taking a cabin from northern WI apart log by log and bringing it down to the Madison area to rebuild on the edge of his parent's apple orchard. (I love that story.)

Since then, I have lived in Minnesota, Maryland, the SF Bay area, Tunisia, London, Massachusetts, Washington, DC, Yemen, and then finally here in Humboldt.

I first joined a UU fellowship in the 1990s in Sudbury, MA. In addition to whole-heartedly agreeing with the principles, and never having really been a ‘trinitarian,’ I had been impressed by the work of the UUSC. I will confess that when I first heard of the Unitarian-Universalists, I figured the ‘Universalist’ part came from an open attitude to all world belief systems and their common ‘universal’ themes. I have since learned about and appreciate the specifics of the Universalists’ history, but I still think my concept can fit right in too.

I’m married to Hamouda. We met at UC Berkeley when we were working on our public health degrees, and we have enjoyed working in international public health ever since. We have three great sons and two lovely grandchildren.

Major interests in addition to family and friends (and always trying to get enough exercise) are good books, progressive politics at all levels, and health and environmental issues.

Sunday Services

January 4 – 9 and 11 a.m. Behind, Ahead, and Where Are We Now? – Rev. Bryan Jessup

This will be a service of reflection about where we've been in the past, where we are going and the challenges and opportunities that we are dealing with right now.

January 11 – 9 and 11 a.m. Appreciative Inquiry Not Original Sin – Rev. Bryan Jessup

If we are going to remain hopeful about who we are and grow in our abilities and creativity, appreciative inquiry is a skill worth learning. It honors our individual make up and helps us build on our strengths. It works for individuals and groups alike.

January 18 – 9 and 11 a.m. Across all cultures – Baba Jamal

Baba Jamal Koram returns to share his wit, wisdom and inspiring stories with us. He brings 20-plus years of academic, professional and personal storytelling experience. Baba Jamal's focused message is to promote American cultural heritage through stories, songs, oral histories and media. He is distinguished among contemporary storytellers, who acknowledge his ethical and professional leadership and artistic dignity. As stated in Baltimore magazine: "Koram's stories cut across all cultural and generational lines, and because he tells them so compellingly, you have to be neither African American nor a kid to get a kick out of them."

January 25 – 9 and 11 a.m. Our Elders Reflect – Julie Neander, coordinator

In this service elders from our congregation will share stories from their personal lives and from our community here at the HUUF. They will reflect on the role of our faith in their lives and how our values and the friendships formed here have sustained them over the years.

Editor's note: For the second month, the newsletter has run to more than 10 pages. When this happens, I can either cram everything down to 8 pages leaving out some articles, every picture and all white space; or have our printer do two, single-page inserts; or print the calendar and services on the centerfold. I've chosen the final option to save the extra cost and time delay of the inserts and to preserve the appearance of the newsletter.

Guest at Your Table

Please continue to gather your contributions for the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee through the month of December. Donations for Guest at Your Table will be collected in the foyer on January 4 and 11.

If you are able, please round up your check. Contributions of $125 or more will be doubled by a match from the Shelter Rock UU Congregation in Manhasset, NY. Guest at Your Table is our opportunity to manifest our UU principles via UUSC's national and international projects of service, support, and advocacy.

Checks should be made out to "UUSC." Checks may also be submitted directly to Chip Sharpe (599-6009) anytime before January 13.

Deadline info

Deadline for the November issue of the newsletter is Tuesday, January 20, 5:00 p.m. Send your committee reports and articles to newsletter@huuf.org. Neither PDF files nor late submissions are accepted. Crisp, clear graphics may be sent as a separate file, not embedded in your article.

Childcare

I am often struck by what an opportunity it is to be a part of an intergenerational-community. Nowhere else in my life have I had this unique experience. I delight in listening to the experience of parents further down the road than I, and cherish the morsels of wisdom that I gather as I steal short conversations from elders I admire.

The same is true as I spend time with the youth of our congregation. Witnessing students contemplate the big questions like is there a god or do I matter, engaging in the simplicity of playing catch after service, or enjoying the sweet aroma of infancy, all fill my heart.

Thank you to the many members of our community who already volunteer to work with our youth. For those of you who feel inspired to drink from our very own fountain of youth, we are looking to expand our list of childcare volunteers. Traditionally, Jillian and Jen have recruited childcare providers from the HSU students with whom they work. This is a wonderful asset to our community as these young students are passionate about children and happy to earn a little extra income. Unfortunately, during HSU vacations we often have a shortage of providers available. The childcare providers fill a myriad of roles, from playing with infants and toddlers in the nursery, assisting teachers on curriculum Sunday, assisting Jillian or Jen on social action or all worship Sundays, or providing care during committee meetings. If you are interested in adding your name to our list of providers, Jen our childcare coordinator will call you when needs arise. You can specify what ages, the frequency and time you're available to volunteer. Contact Therese FitzMaurice at 498-3564 or t_keslin@hotmail.com. The children (and parents) of the Fellowship greatly appreciate and delight in your presence.

Aesthetics Committee

The Aesthetics Committee noticed that the bike rack had taken up residence near the entrance to the Fellowship. We think it's a great idea to offer a welcome those who wish to cycle to HUUF. But we did think the rack a bit dowdy for this prominent position. So our new member Susan Brauner gave the rack a coat of gray paint allowing it to tuck in more aesthetically next of the gray fence and building wall, yet remain welcoming to bikes.

The January Art Exhibit in the sanctuary gallery will be the work of members of Mimi La Plant's Friday Afternoon Drawing Class. These members have been working and learning from Mimi and each other for one to four years. The class is held at Mimi's C-Street Studio in Eureka. Mimi is a locally and nationally recognized artist and she was a teacher at both College of the Redwoods and HSU for many years. Students take the class with various skill and experience levels. Mimi starts everyone on some basic drawing exercises to warm them up, such as blind contours which encourages one to really look at the subject. There are also a variety of projects to learn or improve ones skill with the foundation drawing skills of shading, perspective, and color theory. I have been a member of this group for three years. When I signed up I wanted to increase my skill at realistic drawing and observation so that I could abstract my subjects believably.

Fabric artist take note: The second annual fabric show will be held in March and April. This time the show will include mosaic and wall hung collage 3-D sculpture.

Cheryl Rau, Aesthetics Chair

Bring a Friend Sunday

Do you have a friend (or several) who would really benefit from coming to our Fellowship? Bring them anytime. Have them call Rev. Jessup anytime. Especially bring them on Sunday, February 15, to either the 9 or 11 am service. Our Membership Committee is hosting a "Bring a Friend" Sunday. The sermon will address what we mean when we say "Love is our doctrine," and the special treats at coffee hour will provoke lots of great conversation.

Rev. Bryan Jessup

Building your own theology

One of the only religious practices shared by almost every Unitarian Universalist is the practice of thoughtfully asking questions of ourselves and creating equally thoughtful responses.

"Building Your Own Theology" is a ten-week course in which UUs practice their questioning and answering about religion together. Unitarian Universalism as a religion does not have a creed, but as individuals we UUs do, and in this course we get to explore and articulate what they are.

The course will be held Monday evenings from 7 to 9 pm in the Main Hall at the Fellowship. It starts on February 2 and ends on April 6.

To sign up, call the office at 822-3793 or email Rev. Jessup at minister@huuf.org.

Rev. Bryan Jessup

Facebook and you

Have you visited our Facebook page lately? There are posts about “Black Lives Matter” vigils and actions, Standing on the Side of Love events, Human Rights Day and our presence on Gay Pride Day. But with your help, our page can be even more relevant to the Fellowship.

Do you have pictures of the Halloween Festival, of the tea honoring Elva Banducci, of Caring Circle events or other happenings of interest? We’d like to see them on Facebook. Please remember not to post the picture of any child unless it is your own.

Previously, there was a problem with our settings, but now anyone who has “liked” our page, Humboldt UU Fellowship, may post. We look forward to seeing what you have to share.

Pat McCutcheon for the Communications Committee

Intergenerational potluck and Valentine's sock-hop

Remember back in High School when we’d have our dances in the gymnasium? They were sock-hops to protect the shiny wood floor from the damage caused by shoes. We at HUUF have a recently refinished floor on which we can slip and slide to the beat of a DJ after devouring mouth-watering dishes that will be brought to our potluck. We’ll feature a wide mix of music, including “Put Your Right Foot In...,” polka, line dances, twist, waltz, maybe even a Tango or two. Have someone you like to dance with? Invite them to join us. We’ll also feature a sock-sliding contest. All ages in good health invited to compete. Got some music you want played? Bring it along and we’ll try to accommodate. Childcare provided. So mark your calendar for Saturday February 14 from 6 to 9 pm.

Persons willing to help with decorations, planning and choosing a DJ please contact Berti Welty 476-0654 or bertijo@humboldt1.com

Berti Welty

Fellowship potluck and Beatles sing-a-long

Wear your 60s Hippie beads and tie dye. Bring a dish to share for our 6 pm potluck on Friday, January 23. Our choir director, Elisabeth Harrington, will lead us in a spirit-filled trip down memory’s lane. We’ll sing to old Beatle’s tunes. Too young to remember the Beatles? We’ll have song sheets for you to join in the fun. Childcare provided.

As always, help with set-up starting at 5:30 pm, and clean-up afterwards, would be greatly appreciated. If someone would volunteer to be in charge of clean-up, Berti would love it as she has to leave in time for an 8 pm concert. Contact Berti Welty 476-0654 or bertijo@humboldt1.com.

Parenting Together

Parenting Together will begin January 18 and continue every third Sunday of the month from 1:00-2:30. The impetus for this group grew out of the RE Cooperative Retreat last summer where participants identified parent support as one of our top three priorities. Our vision is to create an organic structure that can grow with and respond to the interest of the group. Conscious Parenting educator, Diana Nunez-Mizer, will facilitate our first meeting to help establish a foundational framework where we can explore what it means to be a conscious or mindful parent. If you would like childcare during the class, be sure to contact our childcare coordinator, Jenifer Mager at 668-1848 or coordinatorjkw23@humboldt.edu by January 10. It does luckily coincide with Social Action Sunday, so if you need lunch that day consider donating to the fundraiser and enjoy a lovely meal together. If you have any questions, contact Therese FitzMaurice at t_keslin@hotmail.com or 498-3564.

Financial Wellness

Financial stress leads to spiritual impoverishment and tears families apart. We all need a plan for our money. Financial Wellness will help you create that plan. It's not magic; it's common sense and telling your money where to go instead of wondering where it went. You tailor your plan to your family and work in a supportive group. Your numbers remain private.

Eight sessions cover: Saving, Money and Relationships, Budgeting, Debt Elimination, Investing, Retirement and College Tuition Planning, Real Estate and Mortgages, Insurance. Five bonus lessons are also available. The course is taught on video by Dave Ramsey; the group facilitator is Margot Julian. The $95 fee for a single or a couple includes the book, The Total Money Makeover (140 weeks on the New York Times best seller list), a workbook and access to online tools.

Classes meet 7-9 pm on Tuesdays in the Care Building from January 20-March 31; bonus classes are April 7-May 12. An information session will be held Sunday, January 11 after the 11:00 am service. For more information contact Margot Julian at 442-2770.

Foyer carpet

The carpet in the foyer went out to be cleaned by Humboldt Carpet Cleaning in October. Due to the degree of ground-in dirt and the weather, it is still being cleaned. Robert, who is excellent at what he does, said there was so much dirt it is taking a lot of cleaning before he can safely wash it. That coupled with the fact that the weather has not been cooperative for drying is the reason it is still out. It will be worth the wait and I will also purchase a pad for under it. Much nicer to walk on.

Odds and ends

Thanks to all of you for the new-to-HUUF coffee cups. Now we are seeking flatware, especially spoons, matching not required. Please deliver to kitchen.

The Aging with Grace group has been on break, but will begin again in 2015 specifically as an open support discussion group facilitated by Rochelle Frankel. They meet monthly in the Main Room following the second service.

The Area One Agency on Aging will continue to sponsor the development of a virtual village(s) in Humboldt and Del Norte Counties via presentations at the OLLI First Wednesday lunchtime sessions starting February 4 at the Aquatic Center in Eureka.

The PICO regional organization, True North, will hold a regional assembly in Orick on February 28, 12-4 pm to choose the problem issues for focused activism in 2015 and 2016.

Homelessness is one of HUUF's social justice concerns and has been making news with the Eureka City Council moving to try a pilot tiny house village and rapid re-housing. The homeless activist group, AHHA, will meet January 3, 11:30 am at Jefferson School.
