

Sunday Services

June 2 – 10:30 a.m. Exploring Identity: The HUUF Teen Group

The Teen Group will discuss what it means to build one's own identity. They will focus on several of the many facets and challenges of identity, including cliques, sexuality, and gender.

June 9 – 10:30 a.m. Milestones and Intergenerational Flower Communion Service – RE children, Jillian Mooney and Rev. Joy

Join us for an intergenerational service featuring the traditional Unitarian Flower Ceremony, first celebrated by the Rev. Norbert Capek in Prague in 1923. Everyone should bring a flower and go home with one that someone else has brought, symbolizing the gifts we each bring and take with us from HUUF. Please bring a flower for every attendee in your family. If you can, bring extras for newcomers or for those who forget. We will also celebrate milestones in the lives of the children of HUUF as they present some of what they learned in RE this year and graduate to the next class. Rev. Joy will offer a homily titled "Earth Laughs in Flowers."

June 16 – 10:30 a.m. Joy's Moving Sale – Rev. Joy Atkinson

Join our interim minister as she sings her "swan song"—wrapping up this year of interim ministry. Rev. Joy will offer her perspectives and prognostications for the future of the Fellowship and will bid us a fond farewell.

June 23 – 10:30 a.m. Pete Seeger Tribute – Sandy Lynn

Join Sandy Lynn and musical friends to celebrate the life and music of Pete Seeger, who recently turned 94 and is still going strong. Folk singer, songwriter, activist, author, and all around amazing person, Seeger is a global icon and a long-time UU. Come learn about his life, and of course, to sing along.

June 30 – 10:30 a.m. Joy of Summer Poetry Participation Sunday – Wendy Rowan

At this annual poetry participation service members are encouraged to bring poems to share that illuminate the joy and spirit of carefree summer days. Our busy lives full of tasks and responsibilities deserve the relief and comfort that summer can bring. So come prepared to share a little sunshine. Wendy Rowan will facilitate this service.
