

HUUF Sunday Services

September 5 – 10 a.m.

An internship – Jamila Tharp

Come share ideas, hopes and dreams for future pastoral care at the fellowship. Ask questions about her chaplaincy summer internship at the Good Samaritan Regional Medical Center in Corvallis, Oregon or general questions about requirements for UU ministry. Let's brainstorm together in identifying our needs and wishes for pastoral care as a congregation.

September 12 – 10 a.m.

Gathering of the waters

As summer melds into autumn, members of the Humboldt Unitarian Universalist Fellowship reunite after what has been a season of travel and adventure for many. It is our tradition to bring a sampling of water from the places we have visited, with some bringing “virtual water.” One by one, each small container of water is poured into a communal bowl as the stories of travel and insight are shared with the Fellowship.

After the service, there will be a potluck luncheon. Please leave your dish in the kitchen before the service begins.

September 19 – 9 and 11 a.m.

To be announced

September 26 – 9 and 11 a.m.

Roots & Shoots -- Kai Neander

Kai Neander, a Jane Goodall Institute youth ambassador, will be speak about the international youth leadership initiative Roots & Shoots and its impact on a local, regional and global scale.

Roots & Shoots is in more than 125 nations. It is a global grassroots youth program of the Jane Goodall Institute dedicated to changing the world one simple action at a time. During the past four years, Kai has traveled around the U.S. and internationally, meeting with youth groups involved in the movement.
