

November Sunday Services

November 6 – 10:30 a.m. Oh, the Places You’ll Go – Dennis Reynolds

Life can take us to many places that offer opportunities for learning and discerning. Dennis Reynolds, our new consulting minister, will share some of his journey with a focus on a recent Unitarian Universalist Service Committee trip to Haiti and the lessons learned there.

November 13 – 10:30 a.m. All in this together – Occupy Humboldt

All over the country, demonstrations and protests are springing up in response to the Occupy Wall Street movement. It’s no surprise that politically active Humboldt County has joined those ranks. Representatives from Occupy Humboldt will provide a quick synopsis of their view of American politics and the issues facing all citizens. Also, they will discuss the changes the Occupy movement would like to enact in our government, including the national assembly that will be held on July 4th in Philadelphia. There will be an opportunity at the end of the presentation for questions. As their website states, “We are all in this together!”

November 20 – 10:30 a.m. Prophecies for 2012. Reverend Brad Carrier

Prophets claim the higher view, seeing and saying what could happen. Prophecies use "if-then" relationships. If we do certain things, certain results are likely to result. Various prophecies abound for 2012, a year ripe for changes ominous, obvious, and optimistic. Emerson once wrote, "Always a seer is a sayer." I'll say what I see for the coming year.

November 27 – 10:30 a.m. Gratitude and Generosity -- Dennis Reynolds, consulting minister

The holiday season begins with a day set aside for Thanksgiving. For many this has become known as Turkey Day, and football is more significant than giving thanks. The very next day the shopping season begins as we seek to express care through often extravagant giving. As we begin this oft-too-busy season, let us take time to reflect on that for which we are most truly grateful and explore how that deep gratitude might enhance and deepen our generosity of spirit and of deed.
